Dedication

We are appreciative of the opportunities afforded us by the citizens of Dighton and Rehoboth. It is only through their efforts that they have been available to us. May we continue to render ourselves worthy of their confidence. And may we, their future citizens, also display the wisdom and determination which are vital assets of their character.

We the students wish to honor Dighton on celebrating her 250th Anniversary. To the citizens of Dighton we, the Class of 1962, dedicate this edition of our yearbook, Aurora. We know that the citizens of Rehoboth join with us in wishing the town of Dighton and its citizens many more prosperous years.

The 1962 AURORA staff was announced in October of the 1961-62 school year. An eager beaver staff, the members promptly began holding planning meetings which were continued throughout the year. Combining fun, arguments, and discussions on vast and varied subjects with hard work and exhausting mental activity, we learned valuable lessons in cooperation, working to meet deadlines, the psychology of selling ads, subscriptions, and other jobs too numerous to mention.

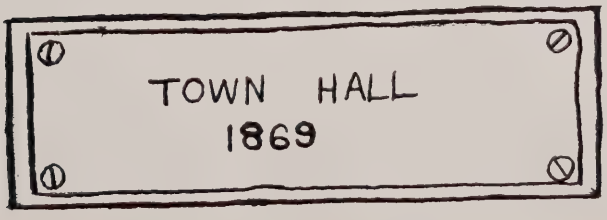
ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY



Success is not climbing to the summit of a mountain as a final goal. It is a continuing upward speed of progress. It is perpetual growth.

I wish the members of the Class of 1962 continued success over the years.

Robert T. Roy
Superintendent of Schools

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE CLASS OF 1962

The academic and social growth you have achieved as a high school pupil is contingent on the time, effort, and enthusiasm you have devoted to your high school career.

The record you have made in these two areas should be considered when you make decisions that will affect your future.

What you are today could be the result of the time, effort and enthusiasm of your teachers and parents, what you will be in the future is up to you.

My best wishes to each and every one of you.

Sincerely,

Joseph C. Harrington

In Appreciation

To our advisors:

Junior year—

Mrs. Burgmann
Mr. Couture
Mr. Marcille
Mrs. Anslow

Senior year—

Mrs. Martins
Mrs. Anslow
Mr. Marcille
Mr. Grant
Mr. Parker
Mr. Dias

We, the class of 1962, sincerely thank you for the time and co-operation which you have given so generously in these two short years.

We would also like to extend our many thanks to Mrs. Murch, who has donated many hours in bettering our projects with her touch of art.

To Mrs. Smith, "thank you" seems too small a phrase for all the help which she has given us in making our senior year a success.

In Memoriam

ROBERT LOUIS SWALLOW

Our senior year was deeply saddened by the untimely death of our classmate, Robert Swallow. To all he was known as a quiet and sincere boy. We have thought of him many times during our senior year. Bobby will always be in our prayers, and we shall think of him often in the years to come.

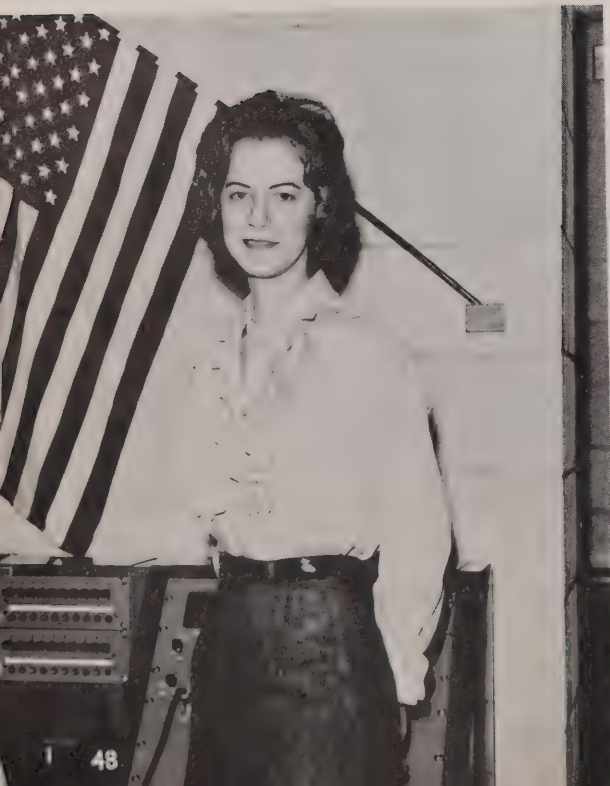
GOOD GOVERNMENT REPRESENTATIVE

Each year a boy is selected from the Senior Class to represent them during Good Government Day at the State House in Boston. We, the members of the Senior Class of '62, wish to congratulate Fred Chester for his fine job.

Fred has also been awarded the National Merit Scholarship Award. For this, too, we express our congratulations and wishes for future success.

FUTURE HOMEMAKER OF TOMORROW

Sandra Nelson



D.A.R.

Each year the D.A.R. award is presented to the outstanding senior girl who possesses the qualities of leadership, service, and patriotism. This year the honor has been bestowed upon Barbara Willette.

Barbara has participated in many extracurricular activities and has contributed much to the Senior Class of '62.

We, the Class of '62, extend to you, Barbara, our sincere wishes for happiness and success in the future.

History of the Class of 1962

The Class of 1962 entered Dighton-Rehoboth Regional as juniors in September of 1960. Here we were to become the second graduating class after spending our sophomore year at such schools as East Providence, Case, Attleboro, Tolman, and Dighton. Our first meeting as an entire class took place at Dighton High in the spring of 1960, where a testing program was being given. An election of representatives to a temporary student council for the coming summer took place and the following were elected: Francis Sousa, Lawrence Violette, Barbara Willette, Helen Powe, Pauline Dube, Janet Bilodeau, Norman Arnold, and Stephen Haskell.

Activities began early during our first year while the school was still unfinished. Our first objective was the election of class officers. Robert Campbell was elected president; Mollie Hurwitz, vice-president; Arline Oliveria, secretary; and Pauline Dube, treasurer. Student Council representatives were Pauline Dube, Norman Arnold, Robert Campbell, Donat Roy, Barbara Willette, Mollie Hurwitz, and Stephen Haskell.

The following were members of the 1960 football team: George Wolfenden, Robert Campbell, John Cornell, Albert Enos, Derek Laidlaw, David Tedford, Duncan Laidlaw, Thomas Andrews, Stephen Haskell, Stephen Johnson, and Pierce Gardiner. We were cheered by Barbara Willette, Cheryl Crompton, and Judith Sylvia, our three members of the cheerleading squad. We like to remember how lovely our cheerleaders were, for their beauty and skill at cheering far surpassed any other class. Our football players will also imprint on our minds the image of physical perfection. Their masculine physiques astonished opposing teams. Their scores astonished the coaches but is in no way an indication of their vast talents.

To the 1960 basketball team we gave Norman Arnold, Gerald DeMello, Duncan Laidlaw, George Wolfenden, John Ring, Richard Pearl, Francis McDermott, and David Tedford. We'll always remember their fine team spirit and physical versatility. We were represented on the girls' basketball team by Carolyn Calisto, Dorothy Oldfield, Barbara Cobb, Lorraine Horton, Janet Bilodeau, Cheryl Crompton, Barbara Willette, Merrilyn Carr, and Gerda Weddell. Managers were Margaret Heagney and Kay Murray. We are not allowed to remember anything about the girls' basketball team.

Spring came very quickly, and along with it baseball, track, and softball. Remember the tractors and trucks plodding along through our new school into the courtyard? Duncan Laidlaw, Norman Arnold, George Wolfenden, Gerald DeMello, Donat Roy, Thomas Andrews, Richard Pearl, and Wayne Hunter were part of the baseball team. Robert Campbell was the manager. What great men these nine players proved to be!

Francis McDermott, Robert Campbell, Derek Laidlaw, Russell Johnson, and Stephen Haskell were members of the school's first track team. You couldn't have asked for a beginning team with more zeal and interest.

The girls' softball team had Dorothy Oldfield, Gerda Weddell, Carol Jackson, Janet Bilodeau, and its two captains Carolyn Calisto and Barbara Cobb. All possessed a combination of grace, charm, and skill which, when united, formed complete perfection on the ball field.

Our class band members for our two years at D-R were Roger Paulsen, Barbara Cobb, Russell Johnson, Thomas Andrews, and Cynthia Clayton. They were, of course, the best band members the school has had or ever will have.

In May of 1961, some of our classmates were initiated into the National Honor Society. They were Carolyn Adams, Joyce Pavao, Cynthia Clayton, Carolyn Melesky, Merrilyn Carr, Norman Arnold, Fred Chester, Thomas Billings, Marsha Roman, John Ring and Duncan Laidlaw, the most intelligent novices the Honor Society has ever initiated. Our junior year has come to a close. June gave us our freedom and the title of seniors.

The Class of 1962 began its senior year proudly. Class officers were James Amaral, president; James Fredette, vice-president; Arline Oliveira, secretary; and Carolyn Calisto, treasurer. We were represented in the Student Council by Duncan Laidlaw, Robert Campbell, Norman Arnold, Arline Oliveira, Mollie Hurwitz, Fred Chester, Carolyn Calisto, and Barbara Cobb.

Members of the football team were Thomas Andrews, Robert Campbell, John Cornell, Pierce Gardiner, Stephen Haskell, Stephen Johnson, Derek Laidlaw, Duncan Laidlaw, Daniel Pugliese, David Tedford, and George Wolfenden, who made the All-Tri-County League Team. Those of us who went to the games will agree that they exerted force with every play. Theirs was the true school spirit. We were again cheered by Barbara Willette, Judith Sylvia, and Cheryl Crompton.

To the school's first cross country team our class gave Ronald Tremblay, Gerald DeMello, Roger Paulsen, Amie Flibotte, and Russell Johnson, manager. We are proud of their persistence. Cross country is often a neglected sport, but our class gave it attention.

The 1961-62 basketball team had from our class Duncan Laidlaw, Richard Pearl, David Tedford, and Norman Arnold. Norman Arnold was also an All-Narry choice.

Carolyn Calisto, Barbara Cobb, Dorothy Oldfield, Merrilyn Carr, Gerda Weddell, Janet Bilodeau, Carol Jackson, Cheryl Crompton, Carol Creasman, and Lorraine Horton were part of the girls' basketball team. We are again not allowed to remember anything about the team.

The 1962 Mardi Gras leaves behind many memories for those who attended. Gerda Weddell was chosen queen and Duncan Laidlaw, king. Attendants were as follows: Janet Bilodeau, Leo Bilodeau, Carolyn Calisto, Robert Campbell, Arline Oliveira, James Amaral, Barbara Willette, and Norman Arnold.

Spring, the busiest time of the year for seniors, had arrived. The senior members of the baseball team were Norman Arnold, Gerald DeMello, Duncan Laidlaw, William O'Connell, Richard Pearl, and Craig Stevens. The senior members of the softball team were Carol Jackson, Janet Bilodeau, Carolyn Calisto, Barbara Cobb, Gerda Weddell, and Dorothy Oldfield. These individuals deserve thanks for a job well done.

We donated to the 1962 track team Dennis Blanchette, Robert Campbell, Amie Flibotte, Pierce Gardiner, Stephen Haskell, Russell Johnson, Derek Laidlaw, Roger Paulson, and Joseph Tremblay. These runners, jumpers, and throwers could never be replaced, we're positive.

In May the National Honor Society took Robert Campbell, Diane Borges, Janet Silvia, and Sandra Nelson into its membership. These completed last year's list of geniuses from our brilliant class.

"Life of the Party," the second annual senior play, was presented on May 19th with fifty-eight members of our class contributing to its success. The three-act comedy centered around the activities of the Hughes Family, who had recently moved into town, and the problems they faced getting adjusted to the town—and the town to them. A merry time was had by all.

June came and with it Class Day and all too soon, graduation. We'll never forget or regret our two years at D-R.

Class Augury

Double, Double, toil and trouble,
Fire burn and cauldron bubble.
Round about the cauldron go,
In the facts about all we throw.
As we stir the gory mess,
A wealth of secrets we'll confess.
Then from the cauldron we will choose,
Many omens of the class of '62.
Cool it with some of Mollie's blood,
Until the charm be firm and good.
Now if the brew is good and clear,
We'll show them what they have to fear.
Now from the cauldron we will draw,
Their future while they sit in awe.
Ronald T. and Brian, state troopers will be;
They'll stop Norman Andrews going 103.
Whistles to Ron and Brian, a pencil to Norm
For filling all those traffic forms.
When Jackie and Chris are nurses,
Their patients may end up in hearses.
We leave to them these bottles of pills,
To cure their patients of their ills.
Arline Oliveira, this is her fate:
Washing and cleaning for a family of eight.
To her we leave this bar of soap,
May she never, never run out of hope.
Joe T., Carolyn A., Marsha R., and Helen P.
Our '72 teachers will be.
We give to them these patience pills,
And hope they won't affect their skills.
Carolyn Melesky will be playing a song;
With Barbara Carpenter singing along.
A note would be the perfect cause
To capture all the people's applause.
Russ Johnson, Dave Tedford and Jackie Ring,
As engineers, great inventions will bring.
We give to them these slick slide rules
To help them build their swimming pools.
The business tycoon who will get rich quick,
Will be Bob Campbell with his three match sticks.
Our photographer will be Albert E.
His model, of course, will be Delia D.
To Albert a bird, to Delia a comb;
Leave your black and white film at home.
Dave Boily always forgets the rule,
And so arrives late at his beloved school.
To him we leave this pad of passes,
So he won't miss any college classes.
Janet Bilodeau and Barbara Cobb,
With their sports ability beat the mob.
To them we give these basketball trophies
To remind them always of their skill and ease.
If you walk into a bank next year,
You may see Manuel Martin with this pencil on his ear.
After all, it isn't funny
That he should enjoy handling money.
The actress of the '70's will be, you bet,
That charming girl we call Barbara Willette.
This big silver star we're sure you'll see
On the dressing room door of our star to be.
Joyce Pavao, the scholar of our class,
Will, from her pupils, take no sass.
This stick will back up each demand,
And let her rule with an iron hand.
Our three Judys secretaries will be,
Whose bosses will want them on their knee.
We give to them these bottles of red ink,
To keep their work right in the pink.
Charlene Zeitler has been our head majorette.
She deserves first prize for her work, you bet.
To her we give this baton of gold
To remind her of her fame already told.
Mary Ann, Margaret, Sandra Simmons and Pat
Will soon be wearing a nurse's hat.
To them we give this thick-skinned lemon
To give them practice on needle injection.
James and Jimmy at their stations will toil,
Selling their classmates gas and oil.
We leave these pads for each to fill,
To calculate our gas and oil bill.
Clif and Leo hope to be later
Heavy equipment operators.
This little gift of a monkey wrench
Will help to keep them off the bench.
George Wolfenden is known for sports;
His skill shines out on basketball courts.
We give to him this trophy ball,
In hopes that he will amaze them all.
To Charlie, Richard Pearl and Larry Violette,
We give these regulation targets.
The bull's eye hope they never miss,
Since they will be in the service.
Woodworking is the chosen career
For Gary B. and Will R., now hear!
We give to them these hammers and nails,
And hope they give them many sales.
Our 2 Dots and 2 Jeans make perfect pairs,
In the office handling secretary cares.
Nancy, Marcia, Edith and Sandra Wood
Will join them over their desks of wood.
We give to them this small wet sponge
To moisten stamps and save their tongues.
A fiddler Merrilyn Carr will be
And soon will play in a symphony.
We give to her this string of "A,"
So she will always be able to play.
Roger Paulsen, he's the best;
In his artistic ability exceeds the rest.
We give to him this blueprint
In hopes that he will make a mint.

To William O'Connell, our future barber,
We give this witches brew of hair grower.
Tom A., John C., Carol C., and Cindy C.,
With Steve H., made our play something to see.
To them we leave this bundle of praise,
We'll remember our play to the end of our days.
Fred Chester, our nautical engineer,
Will teach his shipmates how to steer.
This little compass will guide his way
And keep him on course both night and day.
Betty, Olivia, and Joela will join the team
Of excellent secretaries, so it would seem.
To them we leave this steno notebook
So they can easily go back and look.
Pierce Gardner, Aime Flibotte and Carol Jackson
Sit quietly by from sun to sun.
These megaphones are the perfect gift
To give their voices a helpful lift.
Ronald B., Roger B., Richard and Craig
As future mechanics have been paged.
May all their years be filled with luck,
And started by this first new buck.
Ronald M., Arthur Burt and Cusmedo C.
Have not yet decided what to be.
We give to them this exciting job
So they will never have to sob.
Charles Waterman will build buildings of stone,
So to him we give this building loan.
Pauline and Helen, Beauticians will be.
They'll fix your hair up to a "T."
A bunch of rollers is the perfect gift
To give their business a starting lift.
Sandra Smith, Janet S., Barbara P. and Cheryl B.
Join the crew of secretaries to be.
This cushion is the perfect gift
To keep them all from getting stiff.
Joseph Gousie will be a teacher;
Denis Blanchette will be a preacher.
Both will benefit the nation.
We give them our admiration.
William Bliss will be our electrician,
A TV and radio technician.
We give him this piece of solder
To keep the wires and transistors in order.
To Derek and Duncan, the twins of our class,
We give these two diamonds to give each lass.
To Gail, Cynthia and Yvonne,
Lorraine, Lois, Lyn and Joanne
We give these brand new secretary's desks,
To help them do their very best.
The wonderful book writer with good reviews
Will be Wayne Hunter; isn't that news?
We award him this Pulitzer Prize,
And hope that his head stays the same size.
The gabbers at the movie show,
Are Gerda Weddell and Dotty O.
To them we leave these boxes of pep,
To help them along and keep them hep.
We give this pencil to Donat Roy,
And know he'll say "Oh Boy,
Just what I wanted. Now I won't borrow
Another one until maybe tomorrow."
When you sail on the high seas,
Watch for Tom, a frogman he'll be.
These life savers we leave to him
In case he forgets how to swim.
While Tony sits home minding the babies,
Doris will be out wrestling the ladies.
To them we leave this pair of pins,
And hope the next ones will be twins.
Daniel Pugliese, a Romeo will be,
To charm the ladies he sees—
We leave to him this little book,
So at the techniques he can look.
Amelia and Dianne will own a cosmetics place
Where for a fee, they'll fix your face.
To them we leave some emery sticks
To fix all city folks, and maybe some hicks.
Cheryl and Kay will soon be wed.
They'll serve their husbands breakfast in bed.
To them we leave this fork and knife
And hope each will have a happy life.
Steve Johnson will be a flyer yet;
To him we leave this model jet.
Sandra Nelson, as we all know,
Will be queen of the kitchen, so—
We leave to her this spool of thread
To sew her patches when she has wed.
Carolyn and Norman, who led our team,
Fought energetically and were on the beam,
Because they earned the highest scores,
We'll give them a basket to earn one more.
In case anyone asketh
The fate of Donald Hesketh,
Miles of type he will set
For the Taunton Daily Gazette.
Alfred S., Albert M., Manuel G. and G. Berwick
Hope to find life a picnic.
With money to spend, why buck the trend,
They will use it, and enjoy life to the end.
Michael Petit and William Rose,
As we think most everyone knows,
Will study forestry and learn about trees.
Look out for poison ivy and bees!
Alan Santos and Arthur Smith head for college,
The search of considerable knowledge.
With hard work, it is our guess,
Their lives will be a great success.
Stephen Stahlbush will be an artist,
David Rathkamp will be a cartoonist.
To Steve a brush, to Dave a funny,
Let's hope they make loads of money.
To Jerry DeMello, who a golf Pro will be,
We leave this professionally used golf tee.

The Class Will

We, the Class of 1962, being of sound mind and body, do ordain this to be our last will and testament. We leave our sincere thanks to those on the faculty and staff who have patiently aided us in our quest for knowledge. Their sense of humor, understanding, and good advice have certainly been a source of inspiration to all of us.

Carolyn Adams leaves a package of Fig Newtons to Mr. Fairbanks. May he eat them in peace.

Jimmy Amaral leaves his unfinished projects to Larry Abrams.

To Andrew Jennings, Norman Andrews leaves his A's in Physics.

Thomas Andrews leaves his slide rule to any promising Math IV student who needs one.

Norman Arnold leaves his speediness on the P.F.I. test to any Junior boy who can do four events in five minutes and not look the least bit tired.

To Sharon Dean, Gail Arsenault leaves her job of selling milk at third lunch.

Gary Bennett leaves his hutches to Dennis Desautels.

To Alice Perry, George Berwick leaves his ability to get along with everyone.

Dennis Blanchette wills a can of room deodorant to Mr. Little for the boys' locker room.

Thomas Billings wills his drawings on the blackboard in French to Kenneth Arnold.

Leo Bilodeau leaves his pegged pants and suede shoes to Leo Dupuis.

To Miss Unsworth, Janet Bilodeau leaves Janis Blanchette. Good luck, Miss Unsworth!

William Bliss wills his ability to goof off in shop to anyone who is goofy.

Dave Boily wills his ability to fall asleep in class to Dean Dewsnap.

To Tim Zucchi, Christine Borden leaves her love for Algebra.

Diane Borges leaves her "gems" to Mr. Marcotte and to next year's P.O.D. class.

Ronnie Botelho is going to—just leave.

Cheryl Bradshaw leaves the pay phone to anyone who thinks they can afford it. I hope you have a lot of dimes.

Art Burt bequeaths his Junior English book to anyone who might enjoy listening better than he has.

Carolyn Calisto leaves her pitching arm to Miss Unsworth, who she thinks is in need of it.

To Our Graduates

I extend my heartiest congratulations and best wishes to the 1962 graduating class of the Dighton-Rehoboth Regional Vocational High School. You have established a high standard of undergraduate loyalty and zeal which has pleased your faculty very much.

You have severed your connection with the school, but have entered into a new and permanent relationship with it. To a fine group of young men, I wish you every success. Good Luck and God Bless You.

The past football season was a building year as far as the Falcons were concerned. Via graduation the Falcons lost sixteen lettermen. Despite a rather dismal record the team showed hustle, spirit, and great promise for the future years. The freshman team enjoyed an undefeated season posting six wins: CONGRATULATIONS! We'll be hearing from you in the future.

1961-1962 BASKETBALL SEASON

Led by Duncan Laidlaw and Norman Arnold, the Falcons got off to a good start by winning six of their first nine games. As the season progressed, however, a severe lack of height hampered their rebounding and at season's end they had won 30% of their games.

Although the win and loss column was not impressive, the spirited play of the varsity throughout the season and the exploits of league's high scorer, Norman Arnold, were a source of pride to the D.R. rooters.

Congratulations, boys, for a job well done.

Greetings—

We, your teachers, extend our congratulations and best wishes to you, the class of 1962. As you venture forth into the competitive world of adulthood, you may at first contact consider this world to be a cold and demanding one; a world that is harsh in its judgements and exacting in its requirements. Be neither hasty nor critical in your appraisal. The world you are entering is a free world where all are endowed with equal rights and opportunities. If this world is competitive, it is so because all have the rights to compete. If it is demanding, it is so because it needs the talents you can offer it. If it is exacting, it is so because the opportunities it provides are unlimited. Accept the challenge of the world. Enter it with a competitive spirit and with high ideals. Give to it to the best of your ability, strive to attain the aims of your class motto—Attempt, Accomplish, Perfect—and you shall learn that it is a warm and receptive world that will welcome you and open wide to you the doors of success and happiness.
